Dear Miss Young:

It would be great fun to judge hunters at your Spring Horse Show on 5 May and to see you and the others with whom I had such a fine day in your good country, but I have already accepted a judging assignment for that date in New Jersey. Unfortunately for me,

I must decline your kind invitation -

It was good of you to think of me; please ask me another time!

Congratulations on your full recognition; it is well deserved.

Sincerely yours,

Harry Austin
